FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials of the Office of Secretary of State assume no fiscal impact.

Officials of the Kansas City Board of Election Commission stated that the City Clerk already does this function especially for the Mayor and Council elections. The City Council should require that this be done for issue elections. Officials stated there “should be virtually no cost”.

	$0	$0	$0
FISCAL IMPACT - Local Government	FY 2003 (10 Mo.)	FY 2004	FY 2005

FISCAL IMPACT - Small Business

No direct fiscal impact to small businesses would be expected as a result of this proposal.

DESCRIPTION

This bill allows Kansas City to designate Jackson County as the election authority that acts as the verification board to certify the election results within the city. This designation must be done by city ordinance. If designated, Jackson County will then be responsible for notifying all verification boards within the city of Jackson County's designation. Within a specified time after an election, each verification board in Kansas City will certify its election results to the Jackson County verification board. The Jackson County election authority will announce the results of the election and certify the cumulative returns to the city.

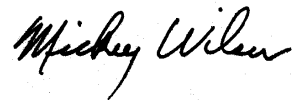

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
